Modern Languages 6th Grade
Dual Language Immersion (DLI)
Culture and History

Course Description

The Middle School Dual Language Immersion (DLI) Culture and History (Grade 6) course is designed for students who continue their DLI studies from elementary to middle school. The course may also be appropriate for native-like speakers with proficiency levels similar to DLI students. This course surveys the histories and cultures represented by countries and regions in which the target language is spoken. Students will examine cultural practices, perspectives, and products in the target language and reflect on the values, beliefs, interests, and experiences that shape these cultures. Special focus will be placed on cultural expression through products (i.e., music, artwork, folklore, literature, dance, theater, architecture). By the end of this course, students will exhibit Intermediate-Low to Intermediate-Mid levels of proficiency speaking, listening, reading, and writing (ACTFL Proficiency Guidelines, 2012). This course should be taught exclusively in the target language.

This course may be offered in a quarterly- semester- or year-long format. There is no pre-requisite for this course.
