Dear Teachers:

I am excited to announce that the Seventh Congressional District will be participating in the upcoming Congressional Art Competition, "An Artistic Discovery." This is a wonderful competition open to all high school students, 9th through the 12th grades. The 2015 exhibit and awards ceremony will be held on March 14, 2015, at the Casey Hudgens Center for the Arts located in Duluth, Georgia.

I am pleased to inform you that the Savannah College of Art and Design is offering a scholarship to the first place winner who has been accepted to the college. The first place winner will have their work displayed in the corridor of the U.S. Capitol and be invited to participate in the grand opening event in Washington, D.C.

We must request that the participating students be residents of the Seventh Congressional District. If you would like your school to participate, please have the students complete and return the enclosed entry form with their artwork to our Lawrenceville District Office. The deadline for submitting all forms and artwork is Friday, February 20, 2015, by 5:00 P.M.

I appreciate your interest and look forward to a successful competition. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Paul Oh at 770-232-1131.

Sincerely,

Rob Woodall
Member of Congress
