SP11-1 Act 8

Mi vida estudiantil

Tell students that their families are hosting an exchange student for a year. This Spanish-speaking student will be attending school in the US and wants to know more about the school system here. Tell students to write a letter to Fernando (the exchange student) with the following information:

1. The host student's name
2. The host student's age
3. Where the host student goes to school
4. The grade the host student is in
5. What the host student studies
6. What classes the host student likes
7. What classes the host student does not like
8. If the host student goes to school on Saturday
9. If the host student is involved in after school activities
10. The class schedule of the host student. A blank chart to fill in is included below in the letter box.

Remember to sign and date your letter!
