

Georgia Regions: Research Guide

Name: _____ Region: _____

Directions: Locate your region on the map below and draw a star on it.

1. What types of rock can you find in your region?
 2. When the rocks in your region are broken down by wind and water, what kind of soil do they become?
-

3. What type of plants can live in the soil from your region?

4. What special features do the plants have that allow them to survive in your region?

5. What types of animals live in your region?

6. What special features do the animals have that allow them to survive in your region?

7. What type of weather is found in your region?

8. How do the animals protect themselves from the sun and other types of weather?