Academic Notes

DEFINE
• what it does
• what it is
• what it’s made from
• what it means

SUMMARIZE
• synthesize different events and information
• include only essential events, ideas, or information

SERIALIZE
• include key events or moments in the sequence
• organize events or data to how one event or action leads to another

CLASSIFY
• create useful categories into which all info can be organized
• establish criteria to use when evaluating and organizing information

COMPARE
• identify and assess key similarities and differences based on:
  • importance
  • behavior
  • quality
  • function

ANALYZE
• consider what the text/results mean based on critical reading or observation
• interpret from multiple perspectives