

Anticipation Guide

---

Directions: Read each statement below. Beside each statement indicate agreement by writing A or disagreement by writing D. If you are not sure or uncertain, write unsure. Be prepared to defend and support your answers. After reading the text, compare your answers to the information found within the text.

- _____ 1. The President represents the judicial branch of government
- _____ 2. The legislative branch passes laws.
- _____ 3. The Supreme Court's decisions may be overturned by presidential veto
- _____ 4. It takes only a '50 percent, plus one vote' to override a presidential veto
- _____ 5. District judges may invalidate laws they find to be contrary to a state's best interest
- _____ 6. Presidential elections are held every six years.
- _____ 7. The judicial branch interprets and upholds laws passed by Congress.
- _____ 8. Congress includes the Senate, the House of Representatives, and Supreme Court