

Extended Response

1. Read the question carefully and be sure you have a clear understanding of what is being asked.
2. Restate the question in a sentence or sentences.
3. Provide 3 examples from the reading material that support your statement and answer the question.
4. Follow each of your 3 examples with your own thoughts, feelings, or opinions about them.
5. Restate the original question with some concluding thoughts or feelings about it.